CBSE Class 10

Social Science

Previous Year Question Paper 2015

Series: RLH Set- 1

Code no. 32/1

- Please check that this question paper contains 8 printed pages +2 Maps.
- Code number given on the right hand side of the question paper should be written on the title page of the answer-book by the candidate.
- Please check that this question paper contains 30 questions.
- Please write down the Serial Number of the question in the answer-book before attempting it.
- 15 minute time has been allotted to read this question paper. The question paper will be distributed at 10.15 a.m. From 10.15 a.m. to 10.30 a.m., the students will read the question paper only and will not write any answer on the answer-book during this period.

SUMMATIVE ASSESSMENT- II

SOCIAL SCIENCE

Time Allowed: 3 hours Maximum Marks: 90

General Instructions:

1. The question paper has 30 questions in all. All questions are compulsory.
2. Marks are indicated against each question.
3. Questions from serial number 1 to 8 are Very Short Answer Questions. Each question carries 1 mark.

4. Questions from serial number 9 to 20 are 3 marks questions. Answers of these questions should not exceed 80 words each.
5. Questions from serial number 21 to 28 are 5 marks questions. Answers of these questions should not exceed 100 words each.
6. Question number 29 and 30 are map questions of 3 marks each from History and Geography both. After completion, attach the maps inside your answer-book.

1. What was the main aim of the French revolutionaries? 1 Mark

Ans: The main aim of the French revolutionaries was to create a sense of collective identity amongst the French people by banning the estate system.

Or

What is the meaning of concentration camps? 1 Mark

Ans: Concentration camps are places in which large numbers of people, especially political prisoners or members of persecuted minorities, are deliberately imprisoned in a relatively small area with inadequate facilities.

2. How do minerals occur in sedimentary rocks? 1 Mark

Ans: Minerals occur in beds or layers in sedimentary rocks.

3. What was the main aim of the popular movement of April 2006, in Nepal? 1 Mark

Ans: The main aim of the popular movement of April 2006, in Nepal, was to restore the democracy of Nepal.

4. How can you say that democracies are based on political equality? 1 Mark

Ans: Democracy's literal meaning is people's rule, in which in democracies, every citizen vote has the same value irrespective of gender, caste, religion, or race. Hence by this, we can say that democracies are based on political equality.

5. Why do political parties involve partisanship? 1 Mark

Ans: Political parties involve partisanship because they represent and support particular views or policies that would be supported by a part of the society and its interests.

6. What is meant by double coincidence of wants? 1 Mark

Ans: The double coincidence of wants means that both the parties have to agree to sell and buy each other's commodities.

7. Suppose your parents want to purchase Gold jewellery along with you; then which logo will you look for on the jewellery? 1 Mark

Ans: They should look for the BIS Hallmark logo which defines the purity of the gold purchased. The BIS is the Bureau of Indian Standards Hallmark.

8. How does money act as a medium of exchange? 1 Mark

Ans: Money acts as a medium of exchange because money is an intermediate exchange process in transactions of buying and selling commodities.

9. How did nationalism develop through culture in Europe? Explain. 3 Marks

Ans: Nationalism developed through culture in Europe for the following reasons:

- Culture played an important role in creating the idea of the nation, art, and poetry, stories and music helped to express and shape nationalist feelings.
- Romanticism was a cultural movement that sought to develop a particular form of nationalist sentiment. Johann Gottfried Herder, a German philosopher, claimed that true German culture might be found among the common people or das volk.
- The emphasis on vernacular language and the collection of local folklore was used to carry the modern nationalist message to large audiences who were mostly illiterates.

Or

How did Paul Bernard argue in favour of economic development of Vietnam? Explain.

Ans: Paul Bernard arguments in favor of the economic development of Vietnam are:

- Paul Bernard proposed that the French government should make specific efforts to improve the Vietnamese economy.
- He also argued about the necessity of industrialization to create adequate employment in Vietnam.
- According to him, there were several obstacles in the economic growth of Vietnam and the French government should carry out land reforms in order to counter these hindrances. He believed to earn more profits the economy of the colonies should be developed.

10. Describe the main features of 'Poona Pact'. 3 Marks

Ans: The main features of the 'Poona Pact' are:

- Depressed Classes (later known as Scheduled Caste) were given reserved seats in federal and state legislative councils under the Poona Pact (September 1932).
- They were to be voted by the general electorate and this act came into force due to Gandhi's fast unto death.
- Ambedkar ultimately accepted Gandhiji's stand.

11. How did 'Salt March' become an effective tool of resistance against colonialism? Explain. 3 Marks

Ans: 'Salt March' become an effective tool of resistance against colonialism, for the following reasons:

- Mahatma Gandhi found in salt a powerful symbol that could unite the nation. Salt was the most essential item of foods and was consumed by rich and poor alike.
- Gandhiji sent a letter to Viceroy Irwin starting eleven demands, and this was the most stirring of all was the demand to abolish the salt tax.

- Irwin was unwilling to negotiate, so Gandhiji started the Salt march with 78 volunteers. This March developed the feeling of nationalism, people in different parts of the country broke the salt law and manufactured salt and demonstrated in front of government salt factories.

12. Explain the importance of railways as the principal mode of transportation for freight and passengers in India. 3 Marks

Ans: The importance of railways as the principal mode of transportation for freight and passengers in India are as follows:

- They are capable of transporting large loads and heavy items over long and short distances.
- Railways make it possible to conduct multiple activities like business, tourism, pilgrimage along with goods transportation over longer distances.
- Railways extend their hands in performing activities such as commerce, sightseeing, pilgrimage, and freight transportation, as well as making long-distance travel simpler.

Hence, Railways plays a vital role in national integration as it strengthens the development of the industry and agriculture.

13. Why has the 'Chhotanagpur Plateau Region' the maximum concentration of iron and steel industries? Analyse the reasons. 3×1=3 Marks

Ans: Chota Nagpur Plateau region has the highest concentration of iron and steel industries due to the following reasons:

- Iron ore is economical and there are plenty of high-quality raw materials available. Also, this region has vast reserves of coal and iron ore.
- Iron ore is cheaply available in the region, thus providing the raw material for the iron and steel industries.
- Vast potential growth in the home market, also Chota Nagpur Plateau region has the maximum concentration of steel plants.

14. How can solar energy solve the energy problem to some extent in India? Give your opinion. 3 Marks

Ans: Solar energy can solve the energy problem to some extent in India in the following ways:

- The use of solar energy will be able to minimize the dependence of rural households on firewood and dung cakes which causes a lot of pollution.
- It will reduce rural households' reliance on fuel and dung cakes, preservation of environmental protection, and an appropriate supply of manure.
- Solar power plants are simple to install in residing in remote regions. As solar energy is the natural and most effective way to solve the energy problem to some extent in India.

15. "Dynastic succession is one of the most serious challenges before the political parties." Analyse the statement. 3 Marks

Ans: Dynastic succession is one of the most serious challenges before the political parties because:

- Most political parties do not practice open and transparent procedures for their functioning. This approach is not only unjust to other members of that party, but it is also undemocratic.
- Dynastic succession and nepotism is a major challenge for political parties in India as it compromises their internal democracy.
- Because of dynastic tendencies within parties, new political leadership is smothered and thus stunts the ideological development of the party.

16. How is democracy accountable and responsive to the needs and expectations of the citizens? Analyse. 3 Marks

Ans: In a democracy, Citizens in a democracy have the right to know about their government and how it works. Due to this "Equal rights to all" agenda of the democratic political ecosystem, the expectations and the needs of the citizens are always fulfilled. Democracy is accountable and responsive to the needs and expectations of the citizens because:

- In a democracy, people have the right to choose their representatives and the people will have control over them.

- Citizens have an opportunity to participate in decisions that impact them all.

17. "A challenge is an opportunity for progress." Support the statement with your arguments. 3 Marks

Ans: A challenge is an opportunity for progress, as this statement implies that the challenges are in reality, in which the difficulties need to be overcome.

- A challenge is a difficulty that presents a chance for advancement, such as the basic issue that evolving democracies face.
- They give us an opportunity to progress further after we overcome a challenge that we go up to the next level.
- And also, the statement reveals the idea that a challenge should not be taken as a difficulty or hardship always.

18. Why is modern currency accepted as a medium of exchange without any use of its own? Find out the reason. 3 Marks

Ans: Modern currency is accepted as a medium of exchange because:

- It is approved by a country's central government. In India, the Reserve Bank of India (RBI) issues currency notes, and any other institution or individual is prohibited from doing so.
- The modern forms of money include currency - paper notes and coins, as modern forms of currency are not made of precious metal like silver, copper, or gold, except the materials that were previously utilized as money.
- As per Indian law, no other individual or organization is allowed to issue currency.

19. "Foreign trade integrates the markets in different countries." Support the statement with arguments. 3 Marks

Ans: Foreign trade integrates the market in different countries because:

- Foreign trade creates an opportunity for the producers to reach beyond the domestic markets, the markets of their own countries.

- Producers might compete not just in domestic markets, but also in international markets. Similarly, importing items from another nation is one method for a buyer to broaden his or her options beyond what is produced domestically.
- Choice of goods in the markets rises, prices of similar goods in the two markets tend to become equal and producers in the two countries now closely compete against each other.

20. Explain with an example how you can use the right to seek redressal. 3 Marks

Ans: Consumers have the right to seek redressal against unfair trade practices and exploitation. If a purchaser is injured, he or she has the right to claim compensation depending on the severity of the impairment.

For example, if a person's money order hasn't reached its destination and the post office refuses to respond well to his query. The person can go to the consumer court of the district level to seek redressal.

21. Describe any five steps taken by the French Revolutionaries to create a sense of collective identity among the French people. 5 Marks

Ans: Five steps taken by the French Revolutionaries to create a sense of collective identity among the French people are as follows:

- The revolutionaries preached the notion of a unified community with equal rights guaranteed by a Constitution. This was accomplished by popularising the concepts of la Patrie (fatherland) and le citoyen (citizen) (the citizen).
- The ancient royal standard was replaced with a new tricolor flag to let people identify potential with the notion of a French country.
- The Estates-General was renamed the 'National Assembly,' and a body of social beings was elected to it.
- The French Revolutionaries Abolished all the internal customs duties and applied and the French language has been promoted.
- They adopted a weights and measures system and also Goods and capital are transported from one location to another.

Or

Describe any five steps taken by the French for the development of the 'Mekong Delta Region'. 5 Marks

Ans: Five steps taken by the French for the development of the 'Mekong Delta Region' are as follows:

- To enhance agriculture, the French colonial administration began building canals to drain areas in the Mekong Delta.
- Rice output was improved because of a massive irrigation system of canals and earthworks built mostly using slave labor.
- Infrastructure initiatives were undertaken to ensure that products could travel easily and smoothly from one section of the country to another.
- The Trans Indo-China train link, which will connect the northern and southern sections of Vietnam and China, has begun construction.
- It authorized rice to be exported to other territories.

22. Explain the attitude of the Indian merchants and the industrialists towards the 'Civil Disobedience Movement'. 5 Marks

Ans: The attitude of the Indian merchants and industrialists towards the Civil Disobedience Movement are:

- Indian industrialists and merchants prospered during the First World War but they believed that the colonial policies were restricting their business.
- They want cheaper imports and a foreign exchange rate that inhibited imports, while industrialists desired to expand their enterprises.
- They wanted tariff protection and a respectable rupee sterling exchange rate and also, they wanted to be safeguarded against the import of foreign products and a rupee sterling foreign exchange ratio, which would deter imports.
- Following the 1st World War, Indian businessmen and businessmen got substantial profits and gained prominence.

- They were concerned about the expansion of militant actions and the possibility for long production impact.

23. What is the manufacturing sector? Why is it considered the backbone of development? Interpret the reason. 1+4=5 Marks

Ans: Manufacturing is the production of goods through the use of labor, machines, tools, and chemical or biological processing or formulation. It is considered the backbone of development because of the following statements:

- Industrial development is a requirement for the eradication of unemployment and poverty from our country.
- It not only serves in the structural transformation, but it also serves as a foundation of our economy.
- Export of produced products increases trade and commerce.
- Countries that convert their basic materials into a diverse range of higher-value finished commodities are successful.

24. Which is the most abundantly available fossil fuel in India? Assess the importance of its different forms. 1+4=5 Marks

Ans: Coal is the most abundantly found fossil fuel in India. Its three major forms are Anthracite, Bituminous, and Lignite and with respect to its importance:

- Lignite is low-grade brown coal that is soft with high moisture content. It is used for generating electricity.
- Bituminous coal is perhaps the most prominent kind of commercial coal. It has a special value for smelting iron in blast furnaces.
- Anthracite is the highest quality hard coal.
- Peat is poor in carbon, rich in moisture, and has a moderate heating efficiency.

25. What is meant by a political party? Describe the three components of a political party. 2+3=5 Marks

Ans: A political party is an organized collection of people with at least broadly similar political goals and beliefs who strive to influence public policy by electing their candidates to public office.

Three components of political parties are the Leaders, Active members, and the Followers i.e.,

1) The leaders: The leaders account for the type of work done by the political party.
2) The active members: The administrative activity of the political party is influenced by the active members of the political party.
3) The followers: The supporters of the political party are among the followers; they also tell local residents about what is going on within the political party.

26. Suggest any five effective measures to reform political parties.

5×1=5 Marks

Ans: Five effective measures to reform political parties are as follows:

- Legislation should be enacted to govern political parties' internal affairs.
- It should be made compulsory for political parties to maintain a register of their members.
- Political parties should be required to provide a minimum number of tickets to female candidates.
- A quota for women in the party's judgment structures should be implemented.
- There should be state funding of elections and the government should give parties money to support their election expenses in kind, for example, petrol, paper, telephone, etc., or in cash.

27. How do banks play an important role in the economy of India? Explain.

5 Marks

Ans: Banks play an important role in developing the economy of India:

- Banks keep the money of the people in their safe custody and people gain interest in their utilization of the resources in banks.

- Banks act as a middleman between individuals who have money and those who do not. This is accomplished through providing loans.
- People make use of these funding sources in order to enhance their output and revenue.
- Banks make alternative provisions for the improvement of agriculture and industry, such as waiving farmer debts.
- Banks keep money safe and allow it to be used by the depositors in the future and banks also increase the savings.

28. "Globalisation and greater competition among producers has been advantageous to consumers." Support the statement with examples.

5×1=5 Marks

Ans: "Globalisation and greater competition among producers have been advantageous to consumers", according to this statement:

- Consumers have a greater variety of products on the market. In the form of food products, for example, a person can choose from local, national, and international companies.
- There is a greater choice before consumers, particularly the well-off sections of urban areas.
- Then enjoy the improved quality and lower prices for several products and also, they enjoy much higher standards of living that were possible earlier.
- A diverse range of items in our marketplaces is a recent phenomenon that has influenced people's lifestyles.
- However, the effects of globalization have not been evenly distributed. They have increased their manufacturing standards by investing in modern technologies and production processes.

29. Three features A, B and C are marked on the given political outline map of India (on page 9). Identify these features with the help of the following information and write their correct names on the lines marked in the map:

3×1=3 Marks

A. The place where the Indian National Congress Session was held.

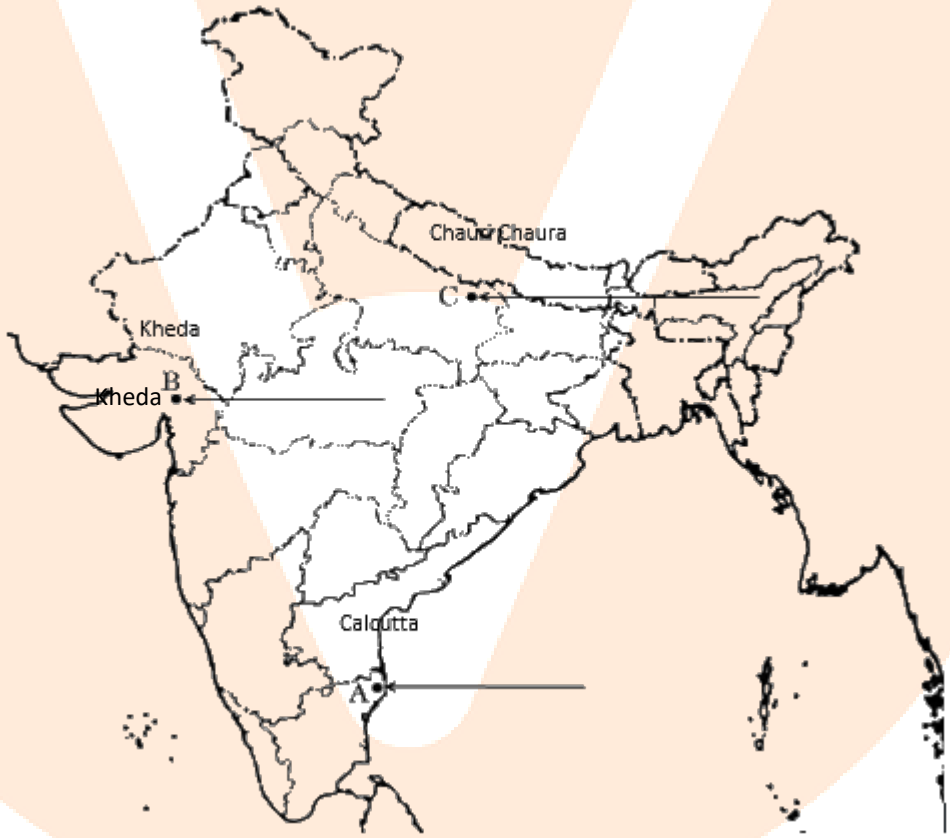
Ans: Calcutta

B. The place associated with the Peasant's Satyagraha.

Ans: Kheda

C. The place related to calling off the Non-Cooperation Movement.

Ans: Chauri Chaura in Uttar Pradesh



Note: The following questions are for the Visually Impaired Candidates only, in lieu of Q. No. 29: 3×1=3 Marks

(29.1) Name the place where the Indian National Congress Session was held in December 1920.

Ans: The place where the Indian National Congress Session was held in December 1920 is Nagpur.

(29.2) Name the place associated with the movement of Indigo Planters.

Ans: The place associated with the movement of Indigo Planters is Champaran.

(29.3) Name the place related to the Satyagraha of peasants in Gujarat.

Ans: The place related to the Satyagraha of peasants in Gujarat is Kheda.

(30.1) Two features A and B are marked on the given political outline map of India (on page 11). Identify these features with the help of the following information and write their correct names on the lines marked in the map:

2×1=2 Marks

A. Iron-ore mines

B. Terminal Station of East-West Corridor

Ans: A. Chattisgarh

B. Silchar and Porbandar

(30.2) On the same political outline map of India, locate and label the following:

Vishakhapatnam - Software Technology Park 1 Mark

Note: The following questions are for the Visually Impaired Candidates only, in lieu of Q. No. 30: 3×1=3 Marks

(30.1) In which state are Bailadila Iron-ore mines located?

Ans: Chhattisgarh

(30.2) Name the Western Terminal Station of East-West Corridor.

Ans: Silchar and Porbandar

(30.3) Name the well-known Software Technology Park located in Karnataka State.

Ans: Manyata Embassy Business Park